I think tank (Farsi un'idea) (Italian Edition) Mattia Diletti

Promozione di idee, ricerca, battaglia culturale per influenzare governi e opinione pubblica. E' l'attività dei think tank, "serbatoi di pensiero" sorti in America più di un secolo fa e divenuti noti al grande pubblico soprattutto durante il primo mandato di George W. Bush. Nel volume si parte dalla storia americana per capire cosa fanno esattamente questi consiglieri del principe - da Roosevelt a Reagan, fino a Obama, ogni presidente ha avuto i suoi think tank - e si spiega perché abbiano messo radici anche in Italia e nel resto d'Europa. Si descrive come funziona un think tank, dalle modalità di organizzazione del lavoro agli strumenti di marketing, dai metodi di incubazione delle idee alle relazioni con gli altri attori del sistema politico. E si traccia infine un panorama dei principali think tank di casa nostra, dove ormai non c'è leader politico che faccia a meno del suo pensatoio personale.
