The first dinosaur movie was The Lost World, directed by Willis O'Brien in 1926. Between that film and Spielberg's The Lost World more than 70 years later, dinosaur toys have become big business for collectors. This book, with more than 900 photographs, is one of the first identification and price guides to dinosaur and prehistoric figure collectibles. It determines the value of thousands of toys, figures, posters, and kits from the 1920s through the 1990s.
