The Golden Medina: The Land Of Opportunity Reuben & Reuben, Nancy Reuben Greenfield

The Golden Medina is about a pious Russian Jewish family who come to America, for freedom and opportunity. They move from their tiny country village into the tenements of the Lower East Side of New York City, a loud ethnic melting pot of Jews, Italians and Irish. Their future is wide open. Or so they think. Echoing today's issues of crime, corruption and moral choices, this 1914 mass market historical fiction is fast-moving and though provoking. How far will immigrants go to achieve their American dream?
