West African Seashells Ar dovini & Cossignani

West African Seashells by R. Ar dovini and T. Cossignani This 2004 publication by L'Informatore Piceno, Italy, bound in laminated boards, 316 pages about 8.5 by 11.75 inches (21.5 by 30 cm) illustrated throughout in color This book fills the wide gap that existed in available shell literature covering this part of the world. It makes a welcome addition to anyone's shell library. This book illustrates 2300 shells from this region and over 2000 of them are pictured in color. There is a brief discussion of each family and then the shells belonging to that family are illustrated and discussed. The geographic area that it covers are the Eastern Atlantic from North Africa to Senegal and the off shore islands.
