Adesso abbracciami, Brasile! (Antidoti) (Italian Edition) Darwin Pastorin

Questa è la storia di un amore. Per il Brasile. Un Brasile non da cartolina, da Copacabana o da samba. Per Darwin Pastorin, nato a San Paolo da genitori veronesi, è soprattutto il luogo dell'infanzia, del mito, delle storie del bisnonno e del nonno, che furono i primi a partire, alla fine dell'Ottocento, verso la terra brasiliana. Poi toccò al padre e alla madre dell'autore, subito dopo la Seconda guerra mondiale, prendere la nave alla ricerca di un futuro e del benessere. Nel 1961 il ritorno in Italia, e per ventidue anni la nazione sudamericana restò nella memoria, una vera e propria saudade, tra verità e menzogne innocenti, come la convinzione di essere stato preso in braccio da Pelé e di avere come cugino il portiere Gilmar. Per la prima volta, Pastorin ci parla del paese dei campioni del pallone e degli artisti popolari, ma anche del suo Brasile più intimo, fatto di gente umile, di abitanti delle favelas, di italiani avvolti dalla determinazione e dalla tenerezza, di piccole vicende personali che diventano, in realtà, le storie esemplari di tanti emigrati. Gente che ha trovato a San Paolo, a Rio de Janeiro o nel Minas Gerais un antidoto alla malinconia, a quell'Italia lasciata e mai più ritrovata.
