Terra degli uomini (Raggi) (Italian Edition) Antoine de Saint-Exupéry

La vita di pilota e i reportage scritti per alcuni giornali costituiscono la materia di questa opera affascinante. Il libro, pubblicato nel 1939 su suggerimento di André Gide e premiato nello stesso anno dall'Académie française, si compone di una raccolta di episodi che, senza tener conto di tempi e di luoghi, offrono all'autore del Piccolo Principe l'occasione per elaborare esperienze di volo, sensazioni, emozioni, appunti di viaggio e riflessioni sulla vocazione dell'uomo nel mondo. La parte principale del libro si riferisce a un atterraggio di fortuna nel cuore del Sahara, in seguito a un incidente aereo. Nel deserto, Saint-Exupéry conosce il segreto della solitudine, ed è proprio questa che gli fa scoprire la sua interiorità, la libertà, il senso della vita. Scrive: "Essere uomo vuol dire precisamente essere responsabile... Vuol dire essere fiero di una vittoria riportata dai compagni. Vuol dire sentire che, posando la propria pietra, si contribuisce a costruire il mondo".

Un classico senza tempo, qui presentato in una nuova traduzione e con uno scritto di Paul Nizan.
