Administrative Theory Pardeep Sahni, Etakula Vayunandan

Administrative theory is and has always been concerned principally with achieving the most rational organization for coordinating various tasks within an organisation. This book is a compendium of various theories, principles and techniques which defines public administration and its importance. It analytically explains major theoretical perspectives and specialized areas of the field such as public policy and development administration. The book also gives an insight to the prominent aspects of public administration and management process.

The book is primarily intended for the undergraduate and postgraduate students of public administration and political science. However, this book can prove equally beneficial for the civil service aspirants and public service or social service professionals.
