La lezione di Milano (Italian Edition) Matteo di Pascale

Cinquantadue frammenti di testo. Frammenti, non capitoli, pezze come quelle dell'abito di Arlecchino, di diverse dimensioni, rettangolari, quadrate, triangolari, di tanti colori. Come i fatti, le persone, le relazioni con il mondo che compongono a poco a poco la nostra esistenza. Attraverso questa frammentarietà si snoda il testo narrativo, il racconto affiora a poco a poco, ma così forte che prende il lettore e lo appassiona man mano, lo incuriosisce come davanti a una trama mystery, di quelle che ti chiedono di continuare a leggere per svelare il mistero, per sapere come andrà a finire, che ne sarà dei personaggi. Del protagonista narrante prima di tutto. Un diciannovenne che sbarca a Milano da un paesino della campagna maremmana per studiare filosofia in Statale, ma soprattutto perché attratto da Milano, la mitizzata Milano, luogo delle mille possibilità e dei mille incontri, la città dell'avventura. E che, come tanti, prima di conoscerla e amarla davvero ne vive con sofferenza la "disarmante alienazione", la solitudine, l'ansia e la frustrazione degli abitanti, il mito dell'avere e il costo del vivere.
