A Countryman's Journal (Godine Country Classic) Roy Barrette

Here is a writer/naturalist squarely in the tradition of White, Kilvert, and Thoreau -an essayist repairing to the country not to escape life, but to find tranquility. His Walden pond is a Maine coastal farm, his characters coons and bobcats, tourists and Downeasters, wreaths and roses. To all of these, and for his own rich existence, Barrette sings a hymn of gratitude the reader will not soon forget.
