Mortal Wounds Sue Duffy

After the mysterious deaths of their parents, Jake Gaddy and his sister, Joanna, are hostile to the notion of a good and loving God. In their separate ways, they search for something else to believe in, something that will answer their questions and give their lives meaning. Jake's involvement with a spiritist and his "followers" is the beginning of a perilous journey for both Joanna and himself. Nothing is predictable when Jake stumbles upon a vicious conspiracy to sabotage an American president's reelection campaign. But their journey leads them to the one true God, to forgiveness and peace, and to the healing of mortal wounds.
