"Picture Yourself Clearing Your Clutter: Step-by-Step Instruction for Getting Rid of the Mess and Organizing Everything Else" shows the unorganized and overwhelmed how to clean out the junk, outgrown clothes, and unused appliances that are cluttering up their homes and how to organize themselves so that the mess never piles up again. Using a simple three-box method, the reader learns to attack each cluttered room, closet, or drawer with three boxes – one for trash, one for items to donate, and one to store. Once everything has been cleaned out, the book demonstrates different methods and tools for organizing so that readers can choose the system that works best for them. Full-color images featuring before-and-after scenarios and comparisons of various organizational options provide a visual of example of how having a neat and clutter-free home will help readers simplify their daily lives. There are chapters dedicated to specific rooms including coat closets, kitchen cabinets, bathrooms, kid's rooms, garages, and more, and the accompanying DVD features how-to footage.
