Drácula (Spanish Edition) Bram Stoker

En su prólogo, Alberto Laiseca explica que "Drácula es el triunfo de lo siniestro en el arte, una larga confesión de Bram Stoker sobre las represiones de la época victoriana. Contiene una lista de todas las cosas que a él le gustaban. morder y ser mordido. Sacarles por la fuerza a las chicas victorianas toda su maldita virtud. Inversamente: encontrar un grupo de mujeres vampiras que lo obligasen a gozar, quieras o no. Aunque ello significara el fin de su vida. El problema es que a sus lectoras y lectores les pasaba lo mismo, de ahí el éxito fenomenal de la novela". La historia se inicia con el viaje de Jonathan Harker a Transilvania, al castillo del conde Drácula, con quien debe realizar una transacción comercial. A partir de entonces comienza a caer presa de un hechizo que continuará en Londres y se extenderá hacia las personas que más ama, principalmente a su mujer, Mina, que verá amenazada su pureza. Como dice Laiseca, "Esta es una gran obra que sólo pudo escribirse en un estado de enorme contradicción y desdicha. Si somos capaces de leer entre líneas, nos ayudará a comprender los mecanismos internos y las contradicciones del puritanismo, además de enseñarnos a asumir lo que somos internamente. Esto, muy lejos de ser crítica, constituye alabanza". Una novela fascinante, terrorífica y de notable calidad literaria que, al igual que su figura central, se multipliega con pasión entre lectores de todo el mundo, a través de los años y fuera de los límites del tiempo.
