Manifesto per la soppressione dei partiti politici (Etcetera) (Italian Edition) Simone Weil

Sopprimere i partiti politici. Tutti, nessuno escluso. Perché in quanto organizzazioni verticistiche e inquadrature, essi sono autoritari e repressivi per definizione. E alcuni, quelli italiani ad esempio, mostrano un totale disinteresse per la res publica, ma un talento inenarrabile nel sottrarre denaro pubblico alla comunità. Quindi vanno soppressi, per il bene comune. Simone Weil, una riformista rivoluzionaria, una delle menti più brillanti della sua generazione, poco prima di scomparire prematuramente per malattia nel 1943 ha lasciato questa "modesta proposta". Un manifesto pieno di passione e di fuoco dove si afferma che aderire all'ideologia di un partito, in certe condizioni storiche, significa limitarsi a prendere una posizione, pro o contro qualcosa. Significa rinunciare a pensare. È questa la democrazia? E oggi, i partiti politici rappresentano davvero la volontà dei cittadini o sono dei semplici organismi che hanno come fine unico quello di riprodursi? Accogliere la proposta della Weil significa uscire dal letargo per tornare a pensare con le nostre teste.
