Paranoia: The Madness That Makes History Luigi Zoja

Luigi Zoja presents an insightful analysis of the use and misuse of paranoia throughout history and in contemporary society. Zoja combines history with depth psychology, contemporary politics and tragic literature, resulting in a clear and balanced analysis presented with rare clarity. The devastating impact of paranoia on societies is explored in detail.

Focusing on the contagious aspects of paranoia and its infectious, self-replicating dynamics, Zoja takes examples including Ajax, Othello, Cain and George W. Bush to illustrate his argument. He reconstructs the emblematic arguments that paranoia has promoted in Western history and examines how the power of the modern media and mass communication has affected how it spreads. "Paranoia "clearly examines how leaders lose control of their influence, how the collective unconscious acquires an autonomous life and how seductive its effects can be more so than any political, religious or ideological discourse.

This gripping study will be essential reading for depth and analytical psychologists and Jungian psychotherapists, academics and students of Jungian and post-Jungian studies, history, cultural studies, psychology, classical studies, literary studies, anthropology and sociology."
