The Psalms and Hymns of the Late Dr. Isaac Watts, Vol. 1 (Classic Reprint) Isaac Watts

Hymn has been collected by Dr. BippovC sA rrange ment Dr. Williams sE dition and a valuable old one published during tJ ie life of Dr. Watts. He has not taken the liberty to alter any words which could produce a change in the sense; hut in a few instances where encpressions were evidently ungrammatical, he has changed them. The Punctuation he has abo frequently altered believing that modem usage is not only more consistent $mth eonstruc tianf but also more perqncwms. The verses of Sacred Scripture paraphrased in each Psalm are inserted plainly jafter careful revision nnt h the Text, (and especially in regard to the 119th Psalmy) before each Title. In other Editions they stand thus, V. 17, 8, 9. Probably Parents or Ministers are not aware how many of their charge are unacquainted with the meaning of these characters. In no instance is part of a verse carried over to the next page; And in only one or two caseS ywhere it was indispensable have lifies been doubled, but the page has been purposely widened, at considerable expense, to admit lines longer than usual. The Tables rvill be found copious and accurate. A fresh one for finding a Psalm or Hymn adapted to any given subject has been arranged by theE ditor. It cost great pains, and he hopes will be useful. In forming theO utline under which to place the respective Psalms and Hymns he has studied the utmost simplicity. (Typographical errors above are due to OCR software and don't occur in the book.)
